

Covenant House Vancouver: Call for Indigenous Art Submissions

Details for Project #2—Seymour St. Location

Art Design Specs

Pillar Sizes

- All pillars have a circumference of 51 inches
- Height (drop-in space): 9 feet (pillars 1 and 2); 12 foot, 3.5 inches (pillar 3)
- Height (housing floors): 7 foot, 8 inches (pillar 1); 9 foot, 4 inches (pillar 2)

Medium: Artwork will be printed, laminated, and attached to the pillars. Proper digital files will need to be provided to us to send to our printer. Covenant House will print and apply the designs to the posts. Please note we are not accepting designs that need to be painted on, or applied directly to, the pillars.

Stage Two—Final Artist Chosen

- All artists will be notified by email or phone. (December – mid-January)
- Artist agreement signed with deadline set for digital files

Stage Three—Final files received by Covenant House Vancouver (March)

Commission will be paid 40% at time of final artist selection, with remaining 60% paid upon completion and delivery of final files. Art will be owned by Covenant House Vancouver and will remain on display in our 1302 Seymour St. location, for a duration of time, as determined by Covenant House.

Please direct any questions to expansion@covenanthousebc.org.

About Covenant House Vancouver

For over 25 years, Covenant House Vancouver has provided unconditional love and absolute respect to youth experiencing homelessness. We help young people, age 16 to 24, who have fled physical, emotional, and sexual abuse; those who have been forced from their homes; those who have experienced human trafficking; and those who have aged out of foster care with no supports.
